

The Wanderer

An Anglo Saxon Poem Edited & Translated Selectively

From the Exeter Book

Daniel Froehling

Tenor 8

Oft the lone-ly one finds grace for him-self. At the mer-cy of the Lord.

Baritone

Oft the lone-ly one finds grace for him-self At the mer-cy of the Lord.

Bass

Oft the lone-ly one finds grace for him-self At the mer-cy of the Lord

T. 6

Al-though he, sor-ry-heart-ed must for a long time Mo-ove hand by hand.

Bar.

Al-though he, sor-ry-heart-ed must for a long time A-long

B.

Al-though he, sor-rt-heart-ed must for a long time

T. 11

Tread the path of Exile! Ev-ents

Bar.

the wa-ter ways Tread the path of Exile! Ev-ents

B.

A-long the ice cold sea. Tread the path of Exile! Ev-ents

T. 16

al-ways go as they must!

Bar.

al-ways go as they must!

B.

al-ways go as they must!